

IRISH CITIZENS

- Statutory declaration by Irish citizen called a “Certificate de coutume” for marriage abroad. Normally it takes 5 days to process. However, if one or both of the partners intending to marry are divorced, the process can take up to two months.
- Completion of the MP2A form/declaration (we can send you a copy via email - a divorced person or a person who is or intends to marry a person under the age of 18 years should use a different form).

This declaration must be made and signed in the presence of one of the following:

- In Ireland a Notary Public, a Commissioner for Oaths or a Solicitor.
- Abroad before a Diplomatic or Consular Officer of Ireland, or a Notary Public, a Commissioner for Oaths, or an equivalent person authorized oaths or declarations in that place.

You need to bring all the following documents to the DEPARTMENT OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS in Dublin. They will check them and if everything is ok they will send an email to the Irish Consulate in Rome, that will issue the Nulla Osta.

- MP2A form
- Birth certificate long form (with parents names)
- Copy of the passports.

At the Department of Foreign affairs you have to pay the cost of the Nulla Osta which varies from year to year – and might be around Euro 30 per person.
